

Celebrating Creativity Across Borders

TIMELESS BRIDAL BEAUTY

TWO DISTINCT BRIDAL VISIONS TO DISCOVER AT EBW 2026

European Bridal Week 2026 continues to showcase the diversity and creative strength of the international bridal industry. Taking place at Messe Essen, Germany, from 28 – 30 March 2026, this season's edition brings together a vibrant community of designers and retailers. Among these exhibitors are two brands offering distinct yet complementary perspectives on modern fashion and bridalwear: Susanna Rivieri by Grupo Noiva from Portugal and Esther Hofmann Bridal from Germany.

INCLUSIVE ELEGANCE ACROSS BRIDAL AND CEREMONY

Susanna Rivieri by Grupo Noiva presents a comprehensive portfolio designed to dress women for every important moment. At EBW 2026, the brand will showcase its bridal collections Couture, Sposa and Boho, alongside its ceremony and eveningwear lines Donna and Margart.

With more than 120 bridal gowns and over 200 ceremony and evening dresses, the collections offer a wide spectrum of styles, from classic princess silhouettes and refined mermaid cuts to light, flowing designs and boho-inspired looks. Key materials include fine lace, floral appliqués and traditional gemstones.

Colour palettes range from Ivory, Ivory Nude and Champagne to Black for bridal, complemented by a rich variety of tones in eveningwear.

Designed with inclusivity at its core, Susanna Rivieri produces gowns in sizes EU 34 to 64, offering fashion-forward designs at accessible price points without compromising on quality or craftsmanship. Removable skirts and sleeves allow for versatile styling, responding to the growing demand for adaptable, two-look weddings.

Manufactured in Portugal with a delivery time of approximately three months, the brand supports its international stockists with printed catalogues and shareable social media content, while continuing to expand its presence across Europe and beyond.

CONTEMPORARY BRIDAL DESIGN WITH A REFINED SENSIBILITY

Esther Hofmann Bridal represents a modern German approach to bridal fashion, defined by clean lines, thoughtful construction and an understated yet confident aesthetic. Exhibiting at EBW 2026, the brand will present a curated selection of gowns that reflect a balance between contemporary design and timeless bridal elegance.

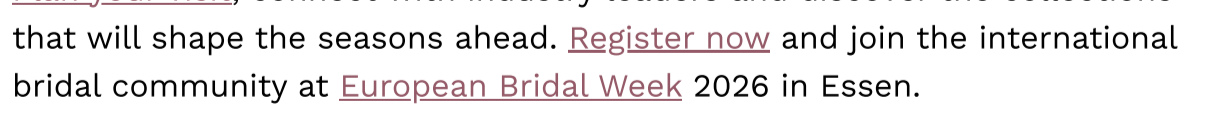

With a strong focus on fit, quality materials and visual clarity, Esther Hofmann Bridal speaks to brides who value individuality, modern femininity and effortless sophistication. Each design is created to feel wearable, confident and authentic, allowing the bride's personality to take centre stage.
