

Monica Loretto: Craftsmanship, Elegance, and Innovation for Every Bride

Astra Collection by Angela Bianca

ELEGANCE IN MOTION

EXPLORE FIVE DISTINCT MONICA LORETTI COLLECTIONS AT EBW 2026

At European Bridal Week, taking place from 28 - 30 March 2026 at Messe Essen, Germany, Monica Loretto invites you to discover a world where craftsmanship, individuality, and contemporary bridal design converge. With over 25 years of experience in the bridal industry, the brand has built a reputation for delivering gowns that are elegant, wearable, and perfectly attuned to the needs of modern brides. This year, Monica Loretto proudly presents five unique collections, each offering a distinct vision of bridal elegance.

The Monica Loretto line sits at the heart of the brand, blending timeless sophistication with contemporary accents. Designed for brides who value refined silhouettes, delicate lace and subtle statement details, each gown balances elegance with comfort, wearability and thoughtful design innovation.

Atelier by Monica Loretto takes refinement a step further, offering exclusive, premium designs with couture-inspired finishing. These gowns reflect the brand's most meticulous craftsmanship, from sculpted corsets and draped bodices to hand-applied embellishments, creating pieces that feel bespoke and truly exceptional.

With Daniela Di Marino, the focus shifts to modern elegance with a playful edge. Capes, detachable sleeves, and mix-and-match separates allow for personalisation, giving brides the freedom to craft a look that suits their personality and wedding day style. The collection balances romantic detail with contemporary silhouettes, appealing to those who value sophistication with versatility.

The newest addition, Serena Bridal, launched in 2023, is designed for the forward-thinking bride. With fresh shapes, innovative fabrics, and accessible luxury, Serena Bridal offers a contemporary alternative that blends modern aesthetics with timeless appeal.

Finally, the Astra Collection by Angela Bianca is designed for brides seeking light, romantic and accessible elegance. With a strong focus on comfort and movement, the collection features soft fabrics, airy silhouettes and versatile separates, making each gown ideal for intimate ceremonies, destination weddings and celebrations that last well into the night.

All Monica Loretto collections are created with attention to fit, quality fabrics, and exquisite detail. With sizes ranging from EU 34 to 60, the brand provides solutions for a diverse spectrum of brides. Fast delivery, extensive customisation options, and careful guidance for retailers make Monica Loretto a reliable partner for boutiques worldwide.

Join Monica Loretto at EBW 2026 and experience five collections that embody timeless elegance, innovative design, and bridal versatility. From romantic princess styles to structured corsetry, from flowing chiffons to refined separates, each gown is designed to inspire, delight, and allow every bride to feel confident, radiant, and authentically herself.

REGISTER HERE

28 - 30 MARCH 2026 | MESSE ESSEN, GERMANY

